BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR HOUSING (BAH)

Comptroller General decisions B-213293 and B-225205 establish a policy to allow reimbursement for lodging expenses that exceed BAH rates for military personnel temporarily displaced from base housing as a result of programmed renovations/upgrades and emergency situations which require occupants to vacate quarters.

Homeland Security, HUD Offer Housing Payments to Evacuees

The Homeland Security and Housing and Urban Development departments announced Friday that citizens displaced by Hurricane Katrina can receive about $785 a month for three months to pay for transitional housing.

The aid is available to citizens who were evacuated from the Gulf Coast and have decided not to live in mobile trailers provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency. Citizens must register with FEMA in order to receive the payments. The aid will be given to homeowners, renters, people who lived in public housing and those who were homeless prior to the

The American Red Cross announced Financial Assistance Centers open at 9 a.m. in these locations:

United Artists Biloxi 10 Theater, 2681 C.T. Switzer Sr. Drive, Biloxi;
Wal-Mart at Marketplace Shopping Center, Lucedale;
St. Martin Community Center, Lemoyne Blvd.;
Singing River Mall, next to J.C. Penney, U.S. 90, Gautier;
Mississippi Mall, 1310 South Haugh, Picayune;
East Jackson County Service Complex, 5343 Jefferson Ave., Moss Point;
St. Paul United Methodist Church, 3724 Davis Ave., Moss Point;
Isaiah Fredricks Community Center, 3312 Martin Luther King Blvd., Gulfport;
Future Pipe Industries, Seaway Road, Gulfport.
The Bay St. Louis site has moved to Sav-A-Center, next to Wal-Mart, at Mississippi 603 and U.S. 90.

The 1-800-975-7585 number is the recommended method of obtaining financial assistance. Although it may be difficult to get through to this number, the Red Cross said far more people can be served on the phone than through the local service sites.

In addition, evacuees and loved ones separated by Katrina can go to www.redcross.org or call 1-877-LOVED-1S to join the Family Links Registry

Blue Roof information

- The Army Corps of Engineers has Sign-up Centers for Operation Blue Roof. Hours are 7 a.m.-7 p.m. unless otherwise indicated.

- Locations are posted at 1-888-ROOF-BLU or 1-888-766-3258 for Mississippi and Louisiana; callers now have the option of getting a person on the line to help with specific issues. Operation Blue Roof is a priority mission managed by the Army Corps for the Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency. The program is free.
